

Background

This report contains a record and summary of teaching and related activities for Fall Term of 2022 at Kobe Gakuin University, Department of Global Communications- English. Contents include a brief description of each course and links to *Padlets which provide a relevant description of course materials plus activities which were designed to meet learning objectives. An article about the Class One Reading and Conversation lesson on November 18, 2022 which was contributed to the KGU online Newsletter is also included.

In addition to my teaching responsibilities in the Global Communication department, I attended the KGU Campus Festival on November 3, 2022. I also took part in a workshop on sustainable development on December 4, 2022 conducted by Dr. Erika Eda from the KGU Faculty of Contemporary Social Studies.

**Instructional methods for classes included the use of Mentimeter for introductory and summary activities and the use of Padlet to facilitate the lesson*
